

Monaco Grand Prix VIP Packages | What to Expect

Pulling back the layers of the most respected sporting event in the world with our Monaco Grand Prix VIP packages

What springs to mind when you hear of Monaco? High-end casinos? James Bond? Or perhaps the world-famous Monaco Grand Prix?

There's no denying that—despite being one of the smallest countries in the world—Monaco's reputation for oozing chic and glamour spreads far and wide. It thus seems only natural that its adrenaline-filled Formula One event should also be infused with undeniable class.

But perhaps the most interesting fact about the Monaco Grand Prix is that it attracts a wide range of spectators, from car and sports lovers to travelers looking for the ultimate travel experience. Because you know what? You don't have to be a sports enthusiast to appreciate the grandeur surrounding one of the best sporting events in the world.

Why the Monaco Grand Prix makes everyone go car-crazy

Set on the narrow streets of Monte Carlo, this race is arguably one of the toughest and most admired of all car races. Nowhere else will you find a sports event of this magnitude in such a spellbinding location: The French Riviera.

The 4-day race follows generations of car racing tradition that first took shape in 1929. Today, the Monaco Grand Prix circuit has virtually remained unchanged, with some of the biggest F1 drivers making their names on these roads, from Graham Hill to Ayrton Senna and Lewis Hamilton.

The memories you'll take away from your Monaco Grand Prix travel experience will be some of your best ones that you'll cherish for a long time.

Going beyond the Monaco Grand Prix VIP packages: things to do

As hinted, there's more to Monaco than just car racing. Here, you'll find beautiful yachts lined up in the harbor, exclusive casinos, and some of Europe's most scenic landscapes. Not surprisingly, Monaco's high-end lifestyle is home to the rich and famous.

Traveling to Monaco is like stepping into a royal palace, adorned with a sophisticated and imposing design that envelops you in its elegant and mysterious embrace—leaving you wondering how it can be classy. So while you might decide to go full-in for the Monaco Grand Prix travel adventure, don't miss the chance to party like Gatsby, explore Monaco's natural beauty, and indulge in Monte Carlo's fun and seductive atmosphere.

And although France is just a stone's throw away (literally), you'll soon discover that Monaco is infused with a centuries-old rich heritage that sets the foundation to the country's very own identity and values.

There are many sides to Monaco, which is why it's the perfect getaway holiday, offering many travel options to satisfy all travelers. Whether you visit the sun-kissed beach, the Prince's Palace, or the Exotic Gardens, there is something for everyone.

Want to visit Monaco and experience the thrill surrounding the Monaco Grand Prix on your own skin? Supra International Travel offers customizable Monaco Grand Prix travel VIP packages to ensure that you get the best view of the track and enjoy the like-no-other sports atmosphere.

Between Formula One cars whizzing past and soaking in the beautiful view of the French Riviera, we create the perfect travel itinerary that works around your schedule.